

International Disaster Emergency Service

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
January 2019		Pray for: 1 Executive Director, Rick Jett, as he continues to recover from aneurysm repair surgery.	2 *Philippine Mission COC replacing the mission's hospital roof that was damaged by typhoons.	3 Board Member, Bill Bache, continuing to fight an infection.	4 *EastSide CC, Florida, making repairs to their building damaged by Hurricane Michael.	5 *God Always PROVIDES (GAP) shipment going to Damou Christian Mission in Haiti.
6 *Team Expansion, Kosova, replacing lost items stolen due to a burglary.	7 *Rural India Christian Mission distributing needed items, food, blankets, etc., to impoverished children & widows helping their witness during the Christmas season.	8 Recurring volunteers coming to the IDES office this month- New Hope CC, Whitestown, IN, Venture CC, Carmel, IN, East Union CC, Atlanta, IN, Fairfield CC, Oakford, IN.	9 *Int'l. Bible School, Pakistan, drilling wells in 10 villages providing healthy, life-saving water to over 5,000 people.	10 *Pursuit CC assisting dozens of families in rebuilding their lives due to losses in the California fires.	11 Ed Sanow leading a Prepare to Respond workshop at Johnson University, Kissimmee, FL.	12 Ed Sanow leading Safe Worship & Prepare to Respond workshops at Southwest CC, Ocala, FL & Joe Brackemyre leading a GAP event at New Hope CC, Columbus, IN.
13 Ed Sanow as he represents IDES at Southwest CC, Ocala, FL.	14 *South Sudan African Mission providing food & medicine for refugees returning from Kenya & Uganda.	15 *Hope for Haiti's Children providing seeds, saplings & livestock for 2 orphanages & a Christian School so they can find a sustainable way to provide nourishment.	16 *Mission Explosion Int'l, India, repairing/replacing church members' damaged huts, roofs & a church building damaged by a cyclone.	17 *Rapha House, Thailand replacing homes for 26 refugee families who are being displaced and forced from their current homes.	18 IDES Board Members as they review & make decisions on this week's packet.	19 Ed Sanow leading Safe Worship/Prepare to Respond workshops at Wildwood CC, MO & Joe Brackemyre leading a GAP event at COC Treaty, Wabash, IN.
20 Cheryl Houk recovering from cancer surgery. Cheryl is the wife of IDES' Board Member, Chuck Houk.	21 For staff members as they carry out the work of IDES weekly.	22 *Grace & Mercy Foundation, Thailand, providing medicine, rice & blankets for 3 tribal groups forced from their villages.	23 *Missions in Haiti, India, Kenya, Myanmar & Tanzania receiving Harvest of Talent Funds in 2019.	24 *Naidupet COC, India, providing relief, provisional kits, roof materials, blankets, etc., for Cyclone Titli victims.	25 Ed Sanow traveling to Brownsville, TX to lead a Safe Worship & a Prepare to Respond workshop at Central CC.	26 Lebanon CC, IN coming here for a shed build.
27 Ed Sanow as he represents IDES at Central CC, Brownsville, TX.	28 Executive Director, Rick Jett's sister, Reba, as she continues cancer treatments.	29 *A mission in India helping one missionary with medical care.	30 *Continuing hurricane relief efforts as we begin repairing/rebuilding homes in the Carolina's & in Panama City, FL.	31 *Venture Church, NC, reaching out to help those without insurance rebuild after Hurricane Florence.

PO Box 379, Noblesville, IN 46061 • Phone: 317-773-4111
 Email: ides@ides.org • Website: www.ides.org

refugees, so they struggled to feed their families. The pigs...allowed the refugees the opportunity to raise food for their families. "The generosity of the Christians is like rain water from the sky." The missionaries shared with them that all gifts were from God.

In Thailand the need was great because of the dry season. There was very little water available for farmers & their crops, which meant there were no day labor jobs for the